

When you leave a gift in your will to SOS Children's Villages Canada, you will ensure that for decades to come, orphaned and abandoned children will be able to grow up in a loving SOS home. As the steward of your legacy, we would like to honour your dedication to these children and how you want your gift used. We can only do this if you share your thoughts and intentions with us.

Should you be so inclined, please let us know your thoughts by checking the response that is most appropriate for you. Thank you for your consideration.
