INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members of
SOS Children's Villages Canada:

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of SOS Children's Villages Canada, which comprise the statements of financial position as at December 31, 2015 and the statements of revenue and expenses, changes in net assets and cash flow for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

In common with many not-for-profit organizations, SOS Children's Villages Canada derives revenue from donations and gifts, the completeness of which is not susceptible to satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, verification of these revenues was limited to the amounts recorded in the records of SOS Children's Villages Canada. Therefore, we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to donations and gifts revenue, excess (deficiency) of revenue over expenses, and cash flow from operations for the year ended December 31, 2015, assets and net assets as at December 31, 2015.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matter described in the "Basis for Qualified Opinion" paragraph, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of SOS Children's Villages Canada as at December 31, 2015, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Nature of activities

SOS Children's Villages Canada (the "Organization") is incorporated as a not-for-profit organization under the Canada Not-for-Profit Corporations Act. The Organization is a registered charity under the Income Tax Act and is exempt from taxes under section 149(1). Its purpose is to provide children in need with a caring, loving and lifetime secure family environment where basic needs for food, health, shelter and education are met.

These financial statements report on the activities and financial position of SOS Children's Villages Canada.

1. Significant accounting policies

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations and include the following significant accounting policies:

Fund accounting

a) Unrestricted fund

Revenues and expenses for general activities and administration are reported in the unrestricted fund.

b) Invested in capital assets

c) Endowment fund

The Endowment fund was created by a bequest received from the Estate of George Lambert Popow. The money is invested and a percentage of the total invested funds is used to support at least one children's home in Bulgaria in George Lambert Popow's name in perpetuity. The Organization has the right to encroach upon the principal, if necessary, to support the homes in Bulgaria. The Endowment fund is invested in mutual funds.

d) Internally restricted for reserve purposes

The Board of Directors has designated certain of the unrestricted net assets for reserve purposes.

Revenue recognition

The Organization follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions. Restricted contributions are recognized as revenue in the year in which the related expenses are incurred. Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when they are received. Endowment contributions are recognized as direct increases in net assets in the year.

Investment income in the Endowment Fund includes dividend and interest income, realized investment gains and losses on the sale of investments, and unrealized gains and losses on investments measured at fair value. Unrestricted dividends and interest are recognized as revenue when they are earned.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Organization's policy is to disclose bank balances under cash and cash equivalents, including temporary investments with a maturity period of three months or less from the date of acquisition. Term deposits that the entity cannot use for current transactions because they are pledged as security are excluded from cash and cash equivalents.

Capital assets

Capital assets are accounted for at cost. Amortization is based on the assets' respective useful lives using the following method and durations:

Asset	Method	Duration
Computer equipment	Straight-line	3 years
Furniture and equipment	Straight-line	5 years
Leasehold improvements	Straight-line	Term of lease

One-half of the annual amount is claimed in the year of acquisition.

Use of estimates

The preparation of these financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the current period. These estimates are reviewed periodically and adjustments are made to income as appropriate in the year they become known. Significant estimates include the useful life of capital assets and the amount of accrued charges.

Financial instruments

Measurement of financial instruments

The Organization initially measures its financial assets and liabilities at fair value, except for certain non-arm's length transactions.

The Organization subsequently measures all its financial assets and financial liabilities at amortized cost, except for investments in equity instruments that are quoted in an active market, which are measured at fair value. Changes in fair value are recognized in net income.

Financial assets measured at amortized cost include cash and short-term investments.

Financial liabilities measured at amortized cost include accounts payable and accrued charges.

Donated materials and services

The Organization is grateful for the tremendous commitment that Canadian volunteers make. Across the country people devote their time and their talent to activities which raise funds and raise awareness of the work done on behalf of children at risk.

In addition, the Organization relies on donated materials and services to achieve its objectives. Many companies provide in-kind support such as donated air-time, creative talent, discounted or free goods.

While the Organization does not reflect donated services nor all of the in-kind support in the financial statements, they are essential to the effectiveness of the Organization.

11. Financial instruments

Risk and concentrations

The Organization is exposed to various risks through its financial instruments. The following analysis provides a measure of the risk exposures and concentrations at the balance sheet date, December 31, 2015.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that an entity will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities. The Organization is exposed to this risk mainly in respect of its accounts payable and accrued charges.

Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: currency risk, interest rate risk, and other prices risk. The Organization is primarily exposed to currency and other prices risk.

Currency risk

Currency risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. The Organization's currency risk relates primarily to their commitments to villages in euros.

Other price risk

Other price risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices (other than those arising from interest rate risk or currency risk), whether those changes are caused by factors specific to the individual financial instrument or its issuer, or factors affecting all similar financial instruments traded in the market. The Organization is exposed to other price risk through its investments in mutual funds.

The Organization's exposure to liquidity and currency risk is unchanged from the year ended December 31, 2014. The Organization's exposure to other price risk has increased since the year ended December 31, 2014 with its investment in mutual funds.
